

DEPARTMENT OF THE NAVY
NAVAL INTELLIGENCE COMMAND
4600 SILVER HILL ROAD
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20389

IN REPLY REFER TO
NAVINTCOMINST 3810.1C
NIC-03

NAVINTCOM INSTRUCTION 3810.1C

JAN 4 1982

From: Commander, Naval Intelligence Command

Subj: Foreign Naval Intelligence Cooperation

Ref: (a) SECNAVINST 3820.3B
(b) OPNAVINST S5510.155A
(c) DIAM 75-1

(A)

1. Purpose. To prescribe procedures applicable to the Naval Intelligence Command Headquarters and its subordinate commands regarding foreign naval intelligence cooperation.

2. Cancellation. NAVINTCOMINST 3810.1B

3. Policy. It is the policy of the Commander, Naval Intelligence Command to promote foreign naval intelligence cooperation consistent with national and U.S. Navy goals and policies. Particular attention is directed to the restrictions set forth in reference (a).

4. Discussion. The International Programs Division was established in the Naval Intelligence Command (NIC-03) Operations Department in order to maintain centralized coordination over Navy foreign intelligence cooperation programs. Effective management requires that all commands and activities involved in foreign naval intelligence undertakings keep COMNAVINTCOM (NIC-03) fully apprised of all initiatives and significant developments in such matters.

5. Planning and Coordination. The Commander, Naval Intelligence Command (NIC-03) shall:

a. Function as the focal point for Navy-to-Navy intelligence relationships, except protocol, and specified special projects under the cognizance of the Chief of Naval Operations (OP-009G).

b. Approve or deny the release of intelligence information under the purview of the Navy to foreign governments, national and international organizations.

c. Coordinate with CNO and other intelligence organizations and entities on policy aspects of programs involving intelligence exchange and cooperation.

NAVINTCOMINST 3810.1C

JAN 4 1982

d. Be cognizant of all foreign exchange contacts by personnel assigned to the Naval Intelligence Command Headquarters and its subordinate commands and approve or deny foreign visits to the Naval Intelligence Command Headquarters and its subordinate commands.

6. Action

a. Planned visits, conferences, and meetings with foreign naval intelligence representatives, either in the U.S. or abroad, will be coordinated with COMNAVINTCOM (NIC-03) as far in advance as possible and, under any circumstances, prior to confirming arrangements with the foreign participants. A summary of these visits listing individuals and offices involved, topics discussed, and pending actions will be forwarded to COMNAVINTCOM (NIC-03) not later than twenty days after occurrence.

b. Foreign naval intelligence cooperation programs, both existing and planned, shall be coordinated with COMNAVINTCOM (NIC-03). For planned programs, it is essential that initial coordination be effected prior to any overtures to foreign personnel, contractors, and other U.S. Navy activities. Continuing contact will be maintained with COMNAVINTCOM (NIC-03) whenever new developments arise. Under no circumstances will a commitment be made to foreign government agencies for information, assistance or resources without the prior approval of COMNAVINTCOM (NIC-03).

c. Requests and proposals for disclosure of intelligence to foreign navies will be addressed to COMNAVINTCOM (NIC-03) in accordance with reference (b). (R)

d. Intelligence documents produced by subordinate commands for DIA are routinely reviewed for disclosure to foreign nations. Reference (c) requires a DIA Form 118 (Record of Disclosure or Denial of DIA document) for every intelligence document produced. To maintain continuity on disclosure of intelligence, it is imperative that the DIA Form 118 be forwarded via COMNAVINTCOM (NIC-03). (A)

L. O. SMITH
Deputy

JAN 4 1982

Distribution:

SNDL FS1 (NAVINTCOMHQ)

Copy to:

SNDL FS3 (NISC)
FS4 (NIPSSA)
FS5 (NFOIO)
C4J. (CTF 168)

Stocked at:

COMNAVINTCOM (NIC-00A)
4600 Silver Hill Road
Washington, D.C. 20389